

Around the Square

By Tommy Ann Miller

It all started when the black kitten mysteriously died early Tuesday morning, and the rest of the day things went wrong for the family and Santa Anita Court neighbors of Augustin and Carmella Rillorta. The order of events:

1—The black kitten (belonging to the vacationing Dale Anderson family) died.

2—Carmella Rillorta had a phone call from her mother-in-law, Mrs. Benito Rillorta of N. Sunnyside, that their parakeet, "Joey," had suddenly expired.

3—While 6-year-old daughter, Linda Rillorta, was playing with a neighborhood friend, Wendy Rogers—(about 9 years old)—Wendy fell off the top bunk bed and suffered a badly broken wrist.

4—Meantime, Carmella had gone off in search of a new parakeet for her husband's mother—and completely forgot it was the day for the family polio shots.

5—The polio shooting was to be done in the company of a neighbor, Jane Quackenbush and family, but somewhere along the line Jane broke her glasses, tripped and sprained her ankle. (The Quackenbushes, incidentally, had been feeding the black kitten.)

6—Carmella returned from the parakeet hunt and received word from her own mother (in Pasadena) that she was having difficulties with (and had dismissed) an amorous one-eyed house painter, and was distraught because the paint job (in preparation for a daughter's wedding) wasn't likely to be finished in time for the ceremony.

7—Later in the evening, little Linda broke her kaleidoscope, spraying colored glass all over the newly-mopped kitchen floor.

8—And just before bedtime, the Rillortas' cesspool flooded the back yard.

PARKS PROGRESS. Lee and Marie Parks and children, Beverly and Lee, gave up their Orange Grove home and moved to the Bay Area recently, after ten years' residence here.

THIS AD in a metropolitan paper: "Room for rent. No drunks. Call Mrs. Kindred." (What? No spirits for Mrs. Kindred?)

THE ONLY thing resembling a shoestring for bridal pair Nancy Read and Richard Racow (who want to be "married on a shoestring"), was the glamorous white shoestrings cleverly mingled with decorations at their garden wedding, Saturday evening. Chief decorator? Ann Forney. More than 50 guests attended the ceremony held under a graceful peach tree in Bob and Ann's lush garden.

The bride, Nancy, lived with the Forneys while attending PCC two years ago. Her husband is studying engineering at Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo.

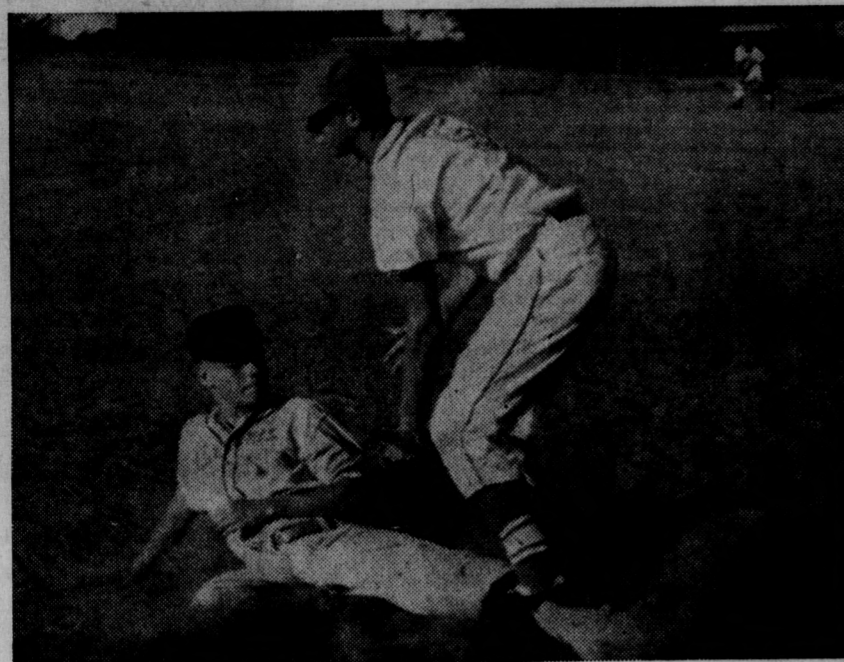

SIMPSON SHOW. Quite a few Sierra Madre viewers at the David Simpson art show preview at the Esther Robles Gallery in Hollywood Monday night. The show, which includes David's oils, plus wood and stone sculpture by John Baxter, runs the month of August.

David, formerly of Woodland Dr., is now teaching art in the Sacramento School system. His wife, the former Dee Debus, is the daughter of Harold and Gladys Debus of Brookside Lane.

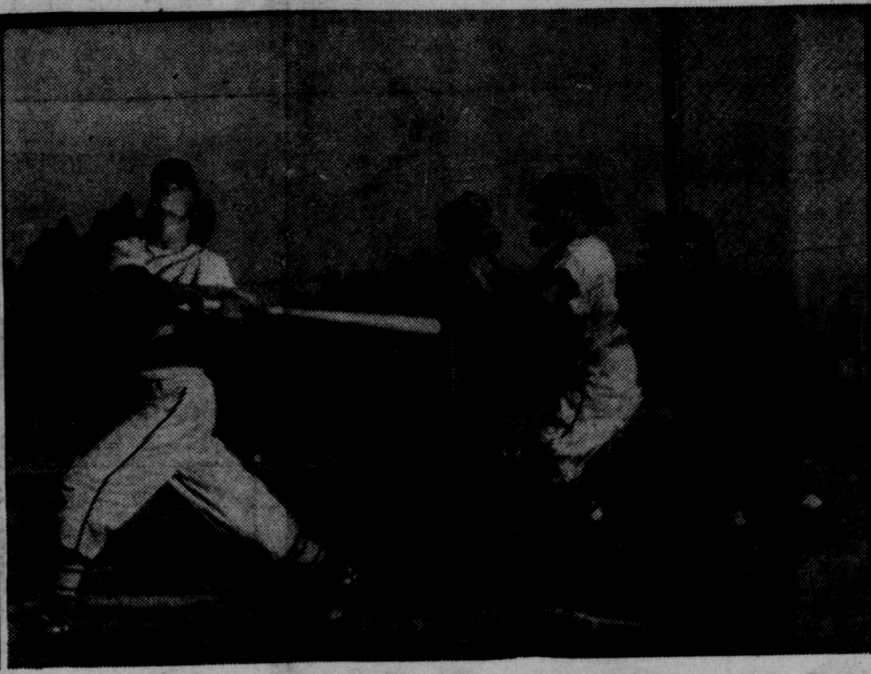

A CUSTOMER walked into the Buccaneer to find this note: "Gone to bank. Be back in a minute."

100 Youngsters Use Pool Daily

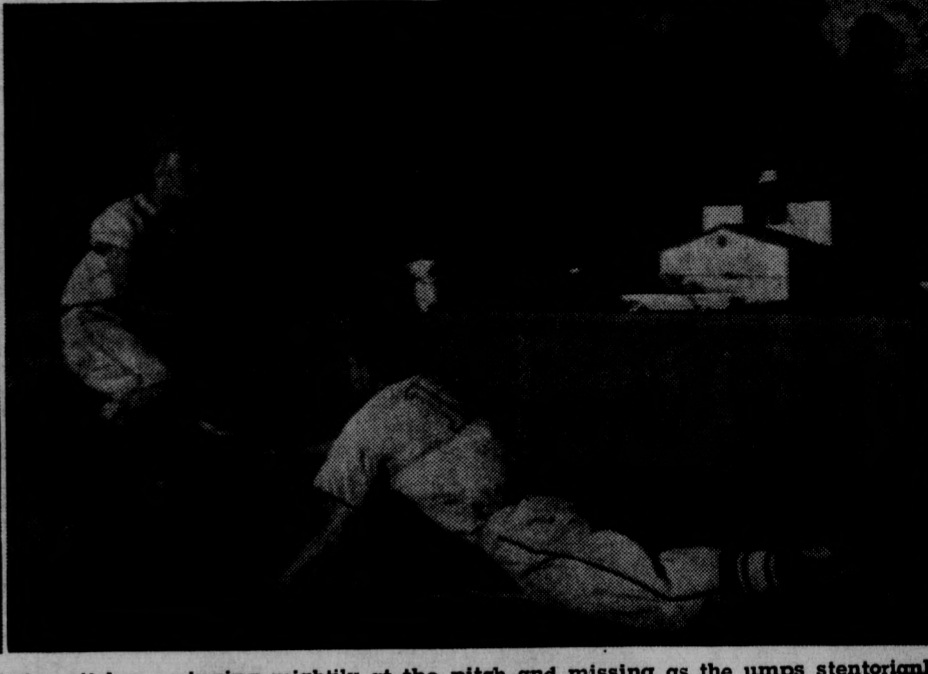

An average of 100 youngsters a day, learning to swim, are making use of the Sierra Vista Park pool, it is announced by Recreational Director David A. Sommers. The pool attendance overall, juveniles and adults, is attracting an average of 275 persons daily.

THE LITTLE LEAGUE pennant-winning Cardinals and the Giants, the latter tied for second place with the White Sox, played off an incomplete game last week. Cardinals won, with the result that a playoff game was necessary this week to determine whether the Giants or White Sox won second spot. These pictures reveal some crucial plays in the Cardinals-Giants clash. First photo shows John English, Cardinal shortstop, being tagged out at first by Dennis Owen, first sacker of the Giants. No. 2 picture is that of Bill Hillman, Cardinal pitcher, swinging mightily at the pitch and missing as the umps stentoriously called "S-t-r-i-k-e One!" Third scene is that of Buddy Burke, Giant third sacker, caught in a squeeze play between third and home, diving back to third—safe.

Report to Our Readers And For Our Advertisers

The people of Sierra Madre and Hastings Ranch evidently like the SIERRA MADRE NEWS, both as a reading and advertising medium.

Street sales during July increased 20 per cent over the corresponding month last year, this establishing a record for such sales and following another increase the month previous.

Subscription sales continue to show a healthy increase, and for the benefit of the advertiser, it may be said that every subscription to the SIERRA MADRE NEWS is paid in advance. There is no inflated or non-paid circulation.

Similarly, the classified section showed an increase in July of 15 per cent over the corresponding month last year.

THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS is growing steadily—it's your best Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch and Foothill Area news and advertising medium.

Recreation Unit Acts . . .

New 'Marjorie Green Center' Is Advanced

The proposed new Marjorie Green Center, an addition to the present Sierra Madre Community Nursery School on E. Sierra Madre Blvd., to be constructed on the city-owned Sierra Vista Park grounds adjoining the present school, was a step further toward realization following last Thursday night's meeting of the Parks and Recreation Commission.

A committee comprising Art C. Albertson and George T. Fleming, commission members, plus Tom Butch, assistant city administrator, and Recreation Director David A. Sommers will study some details needing to be smoothed out. After this only the approval of City Council is needed to formalize the project.

The Community Nursery School Association desires to erect an additional 1,000-square-foot building, 100 by 10 feet, directly behind the school. It is prepared to construct the building and to provide all playground equipment. The public would be invited to share in certain of the "Marjorie Green Center" activities.

THE NEW BUILDING would honor Mrs. Marjorie Green, the devoted woman who was the Nursery School's first director and who guided it through its 13 years of favorable and nationally-known development. Mrs. Green retired earlier this year because of ill health.

Presently the Nursery School program divides child activities into three age groups. The proposed addition would provide for a needed fourth age group. The school is operated as an aid to the favorable growth and development of children.

THREE BOY BICYCLISTS ARE INJURED IN TWO ACCIDENTS

NOPE, GOOD READER, it isn't an upset bus or truck, but the Sierra Madre City street sweeper which overturned on Elks Ave., at the Arcadia borderline the other day. Frank J. Castro, the driver, told police that as he was turning around a wheel stuck and the vehicle flipped, landing upside down. Castro stuck with the sweeper and suffered a bruised knee. He was taken to a doctor by Sierra Madre police. Arcadia firemen washed gasoline from the street. Here we see City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington (foreground) inspecting the upset. A crane righted the sweeper.

Fish Market Robbery Futile

Why should a burglar want to rob a fish market, especially when there was no money—only fish—left in the place?

One evidently did, for he patiently pried apart iron bars covering an open rear window to the Packard Fish Market, 14 Sierra Madre Blvd., squeezed through and then found no cash in the register.

He didn't even take a fish or two—imagine the look of disgust and chagrin on his face over this "dry haul."

S.M. School Tax Rate Is Still $1.87

The Sierra Madre Board of School Trustees, following a public hearing Monday night, gave formal approval to the 1960-61 fiscal year budget of $469,525. This means that the school tax rate for the city remains at the rate of $1.87 per $100 valuation.

Parental supervision of the cafeterias and playgrounds at both Sierra Madre and Sierra Mesa Schools was vested in seven voluntary workers. For the Sierra Madre School they are Mrs. Barbara Dunnagan, Mrs. Ruth Bohart, Mrs. Barbara Darbyshire and Mrs. Anamae Bucks. For the Sierra Mesa School they are Mrs. Katherine Sorensen, Mrs. Kathleen McDonald and Mrs. Mary Zehr.

Two new custodians employed are Delbert Bellman and James Messenger. A new cafeteria worker is Mrs. Charlotte Ware.

One Victim Suffers Both Jaws Fractured

Three boys, ranging in age from 10 to 13, all riding bicycles, were seriously injured Tuesday in two unusual accidents, one involving an automobile. The accidents occurred within a relatively few minutes of each other. All three victims were hospitalized. They are:

Alan George, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis J. George Jr., of 397 W. Montecito, Sierra Madre—Both jaws broken, cuts on chin and burns on chest and abdomen. In St. Luke Hospital where plastic surgery was necessary Wednesday.

Joseph Tesaro, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Tesaro, of 480 W. Montecito—Treated at Sierra Madre Hospital for severe cuts on right forearm and elbow when his bicycle rammed through the windshield of an automobile.

Alan George was riding on W. Montecito when apparently his bicycle suddenly locked and he was precipitated over the handlebars. The youth skidded on his face and stomach for some 15 feet. Sgt. Albert Lindekens took George to Sierra Madre Hospital where after initial treatment by Dr. Mervin H. Peterson he was transferred to St. Luke Hospital where the broken jaws were wired with plastic surgery following.

YOUNG TESARO and Thompson were riding bicycles on Mountain Trail and, according to Sgt. Lindekens who investigated both accidents, they crossed Mountain Trail and E. Grand View without regarding the boulevard stop sign.

A moment later both crashed into a car containing Mr. and Mrs. Andrew

Sierra Madre All-Stars Lose to Altadena Central

Mel Roane poled another home run during the Sierra Madre All-Stars-Altadena Central game at Hugo Reid Playground in Arcadia last Friday evening in the second round of play in District 18 Little League tourney, but it wasn't enough—Altadena went on to win, 5 to 2.

Sierra Madre scored first when Tom Andrews managed a base on balls from Verti, ss., according to Fred Richter's single. The other tally was Roane's home run.

ALTADENA evened this up in the third inning with two men out. John Stankey reached first on a pass and Tom Verti blasted a homer. Altadena tallied two more in the fourth as Jim Reed reached first on an error and Gary Boling singled. Third baseman Barnett singled in both men.

Sierra Madre had previously defeated Hastings; now both teams are out of the tourney as far as first place is concerned.

Rev. Hesse Takes Part in Deaf Service

Last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Rev. Armin Hesse of Faith Lutheran Church participated in installation rites of the Rev. G. A. Gehrs as assistant pastor of Pilgrim Lutheran Church, 1233 S. Vermont in Los Angeles.

This congregation, enjoying its recently dedicated and beautiful church edifice, comprises several hundred deaf people of all ages. It is served by the Rev. A. T. Jonas. It has gained the metropolitan reputation of "worshipping in silence."

In last Sunday's service, the Rev. Mr. Hesse gave the installation sermon while the Rev. Mr. Jonas signed the message to the congregation. The Rev. Walter Niemann, circuit counselor, performed the installation rites. The Southern California Lutheran Laymen's League Chorus led the hearing audience in the singing while simultaneously the 18-member robed Ladies' Choir of Pilgrim Church led the deaf.

The newly installed assistant pastor will conduct deaf services in various cities and communities of Southern California and Arizona, and will be in charge of the youth program at Pilgrim Church.

"The deaf residing in Sierra Madre, Arcadia and Pasadena will find a friendly welcome at Pilgrim Lutheran Church," according to the Rev. Mr. Hesse.

Dr. Barnhart Is to Speak About 'Faith'

"Apply Faith and Work Wonders" is the topic Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister of Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, will discuss at 11 a.m. next Sunday, Aug. 7. She will say:

"To comply with the command of Jesus, 'Have Faith in God,' (Mark 11:22) we need to regularly expose ourselves to words of truth and the principles they exhort; then to apply these principles as we go about our daily affairs. This practice will develop in us a constant awareness of the presence and power with us through which we can experience the 'wonders' that are the works of faith in God, far beyond man's understanding."

Child care is provided during the service.

Also on Sunday at 11 a.m. the Junior Church meets, and at 7:30 p.m. the Youth Group for young people high school through college age.

A class in Bible study meets at the church every Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. To this and other services you will be warmly welcomed.

Membership Sunday is Aug. 7. All those wishing to become members of the church will be received in love and dedication at the 11 o'clock worship service.

Communion Rites At Congregational

The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated at the Congregational Church this Sunday Aug. 7. Baptism of infants and reception of new members will also take place during the 10 o'clock service of worship. Helen Hawkins will sing Gounod's "O Divine Redeemer," with Frances Mitchell accompanying her with a violin obligato. Mrs. Mitchell will also play a violin solo.

The Rev. George Lindsay, pastor, will bring a communion meditation, based on the fifth verse of the twenty-third Psalm: "A Table Before Me."

Missionary Pulpit Guest

Dr. Evyn M. Adams, Methodist Missionary to Japan, and general secretary of HOREMCO, will take over the pulpit of the Sierra Madre Methodist Church, Sunday, at the 9:30 worship service.

Dr. Adams was born in Japan. His missionary parents brought him to the United States at the age of 14. In the United States he received his education at Asbury Seminary, Drew and Yale Universities, and began preparatory work for his mission to Japan.

In 1951 he was assigned to pioneer evangelism in the northern island of Hokkaido and helped establish 28 new churches in the area.

His past three years have been spent at Drew working on his Ph.D., and organizing the agency of "HOKKAIDO Radio & Evangelism," for mass communications. He will sail for Japan at the end of August for his new assignment, with his wife and three daughters.

Music Minister Is On Vacation

The Rev. Karl M. Beilstein, minister of music at Trinity

Presbyterian Church, Hastings Ranch, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation visiting points in the state of Washington.

UP ON . . .

Hastings Hill

Any of us who thought summer would be peaceful and uncomplicated did not take the Dodgers into consideration. Before the Dodgers came into our lives our biggest worries each day concerned whose swimming pool we could invite ourselves into.

And apparently we are not alone. There was that Coliseum packed with people Saturday night to root for a team, almost none of whom call California their home.

But we found out why more people like baseball than football. Baseball is fun for the fans and football is serious business.

A LA SALLE High School spokesman appeared before the Pasadena City Planning Commission asking for permission to build a two-story addition of ten bedrooms on to their existing brothers' residence, and 14,216 additional square feet of two-story structure on to their school building, both of these on Michillinda. A couple of residents went down to the open hearing the other morning to hear an explanation of what the plans include and said they were satisfied they would not obstruct the mountain view for Hastings residents.

But school representatives were surprised to hear they should have garage space for four or five additional cars. They said the brothers lived as a family and were only allowed two cars, that they had neither the space nor funds to put up garages for which they had no cars. The Planning Commission said they would take the whole thing under advisement.

MARY NATZEL and children are home from Texas looking fit. They have been away for six weeks. Mary returned just in time for a swim-coffee party. Fredda Faust had at her Canfield Rd. home the other morning. Neighbors came in bathing suits, shorts or sun dresses, and Leah O'Meara caused much stir in her semi-fitted black handpainted muumuu she brought home from The Islands several years ago.

JACK AND DOOD BAKER and little sons, Johnny and David, are finally off to live in Mexico City for several years. They had thought they would be off earlier, but couldn't get all arrangements made, and have been the inspiration for numbers of farewell parties of all kinds for the last three months. They have leased their home on Landfair, so we can expect them back some day.

VINCE AND DOTTIE BUSH will open their Mayfair Rd. home for the August Hastings Ranch Dance Club party. This will be a patio party as are all of the group's summer affairs, and the Bushes are so clever at thinking up intriguing ideas, the August dance should be a good one.

SEEMS AS though "Hawaii Calls" has gotten more than an enthusiastic reception in the area since residents are more and more making the trip to the Islands to take advantage of the loudly sung "hospitality." Peg and Ken Christianson have had a long stay in what they refer to as "heaven on earth" and at last word, weren't sure they were coming home. Last Saturday's boat found Ethel and Don Hays, Carmen and Bob Farmer, Pat and Bill Olson and the Tony Bolands aboard. Ola and Fred Fenton, with daughter, Sherry, flew over last Sunday, and Gerry and Gordon Newhouse, with their children, will be flying over tomorrow. If each one of them would bring back a bit of sand, we could easily have our own Waikiki Beach in the Ranch.

INCIDENTALLY, Malinda Hays isn't going to have to sit home and wait for her parents. She left by jet for

Hjorths Return To Ranch

Mr. and Mrs. Jan V. Hjorth, 1440 Daverie, and their son, Jan, have returned to the Ranch following a 5½-month absence. The first 3½ months were spent in Mexico City where he was representing his company.

In May, Mrs. Hjorth and Jan Jr. went to the Midwest where they visited members of her family in Iowa and Minnesota for a month. The middle of June, the family met in New York City where they planned for Copenhagen, Denmark, to visit his relatives for a month.

En route home, the Hjorths spent several days in Liege, Belgium. There was some difficulty in their making arrangements to return home since all Sabena Air Line flights had been canceled out of Belgium because of the Congo situation.

While waiting for transportation to the States, they saw many refugees from the Congo arrive and plane loads of troops, all in full commando dress, departing for Africa.

Topeka Kans., where she will have a holiday with Don's parents and celebrate her fourteenth birthday to boot. En route home she will stop in Phoenix, Ariz., and have a visit with her aunt.

BARBARA and DON CLARK and daughter, Lisa, are enjoying a visit from her parents, the M. M. Maciels of Livermore, Calif., and her sister and brother-in-law, the Raymond Frosts, also of Livermore, and their three children, Kevin, Kyle and

WE HAVE some new neighbors. The Elmer Sademans and their two teenage sons have moved into Ann and Wilton Stewart's home on Valley View. The family comes here from Naperville, Ill. (a suburb to the west of Chicago). Mr. Sademan is in the insurance business and his gardening specialty is roses. One of the boys will enter 9th grade at Marshall and the other will attend Pasadena City College. For the information of the canine residents, the Sademans have a beagle.

EVEN THOUGH the neighbors are happy to welcome the newcomers, they were sorry to see Ann and Wilton and the kids take off for Pacific Palisades. There are going to be a lot of people who want a "tough job" accomplished that are going to be missing the Stewarts. They were always more than willing to do their part and more.

INCIDENTALLY, announcement has been made of the fall opening of the Carriage Shop on Aug. 16 which will feature back to school and fall fashions informally modeled. Tea will be served from noon until 4 with the store being open from 10:30 to 4:30. As you all know, the shop, located at 904 Westminster Ave., in Alhambra, is maintained to support the California Babies and Children's Hospital. You'll find rare bargains for yourself and children as well as help support a most worthwhile cause.

Every now and then you hear a remark you wish you had made yourself. Such is the remark made by Abraham Lincoln and quoted by Mr. Nixon in his acceptance speech the other night: "My concern is not whether God is on our side, but whether we are on God's side."

What simple and complete wisdom. It is little wonder that Lincoln is revered in the heart of every American as one of the greatest men of all times.

His great humility and devotion to his country gave him an insight into life and the sensitivity to people that few men are privileged to experience.

He well personifies the quotation from the Bible that says "He who humbles himself shall be exalted, and he who exalts himself shall be humbled."

MR. AND MRS. RALPH PAQUETTE, of Wynn Rd., were hosts last weekend to several houseguests. One was Mrs. Paquette's sister, Mrs. L. T. Boyd, who has been visiting here from Phoenix. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schmitt, who came up from the beach to see her.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES GOLDSWORTHY, and their two children, Nancy and Charlie, of Fairpoint Ave., returned last week from a most wonderful vacation.

They went up to Midnight Lake, which I am told is at the middle fork of Bishop Creek in the High Sierra. They had an 8½-mile hike in and out of camp from their starting point near Bishop.

They were with 160 other members and families of the Sierra Club. For two weeks they were out of touch with everything but the real essentials of society. They experienced nature in her full splendor from a quick rain, sleet, or snow storm to the pure beauty of the sun breaking through the storm. They were entirely surrounded by snow-capped mountains.

The children learned to climb like professionals and Mr. Goldworthy climbed one mountain that took him from 11,000-foot elevation of the camp, to 13,500 feet of sheer precipice. (I almost get sick writing about it.) They caught trout—one measured 15 inches and weighed 1½ pounds.

In addition to having a lot of wonderful times together, members of the Sierra Club are dedicated to cleaning up and conserving our parks forests.

MRS. ED. HALPERIN, of Old House Rd., entertains today at a neighborhood luncheon and bridge party that includes Mesdames Joseph Philipson, Kenneth Fuller, Lincoln Wilson, Ira Lackey, Ed. Pyle, Ernest Maurin, and Robert Anderson.

MR. AND MRS. AIKMAN ARMSTRONG and their two children, Hank and Kit, spent this week sunning and vacationing at Laguna Beach. They were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Styron and their family.

ALSO BACK from the beach are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mounter and their four children of Sierra Madre Villa. They spent two weeks at Laguna Beach.

I COULDN'T stand it the other night when driving by Mesita Rd. I was like the proverbial cat—dying of curiosity as to why there were so many cars all over the boulevard as well as up Mesita.

Got the scoop though. It was the Alhambra Rotary Club Assembly meeting for the district governor, John Dalton, at the Paul Siechert home.

There were about 60 men. They started out with an informal hour around the pool, then a bar-b-que dinner followed before the actual meeting got under way.

Mrs. Siechert also entertained her bridge group at a poolside luncheon and bridge party. Her guests were Mesdames Art Welsh, Horace Ray, John Hedrick, Paul McGiven, John Horne, Kenneth Smith, and Mrs. A. C. Ong who substituted for Mrs. Eldon Osburn who is due back from Hawaii this week.

This group has been playing for several years, and all have children in the same age group and grade at school.

Clark Allen and Flamenco Tops Another Show Aug. 16

Brought back by popular demand for another concert, Clark Allen will appear in Sierra Madre Tuesday, Aug. 16, at 8:15 p.m. at the Guitart Center, 53 N. Baldwin.

The program is the second of the summer series being presented by Bill Spargur and, according to him, will surpass the first in excellence. According to Spargur, the show with Allen will be his lovely wife, Marguerita, who will sing and dance Flamenco

Shop Talk You'll Like To Peruse

By Lisa Churchill

LOCAL BOY MAKES GOOD! Henry V. McNulty, born and raised in the San Gabriel Valley, owner of the real estate agency known as Flamingo Properties, has just opened his second real estate office.

Flamingo Properties now has a second office in Sierra Madre at 496 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., at the sign of the Pink Flamingo.

Mr. McNulty celebrated his grand opening of the Sierra Madre office on the fourth anniversary of the opening of the original office in Arcadia.

The Sierra Madre office is spacious and cool, and Dorothy La Lone, Garnet M. Barwick, and Leone Feliciano, three gracious ladies in charge, will give you a friendly welcome.

The McNultys, Henry and Jean, with son, Jeffery, live in Arcadia at 1637 La Ramada Rd.

CLIPPED from John Cope-land's column in neighboring weekly: "Keynote speeches at both conventions would seem to indicate a hot race in November between Abe Lincoln and F.D.R."

As long as we're quoting, the following convention story came from the Shafter Press: "The Texas Delegates were so disappointed to learn that Kennedy was to secure the nomination, they decided to buy the country and let Johnson run it. One of the delegates called Washington to find how much the government wanted for the country."

"The reply was $400,000.000,000. This was all right with the delegation who had no difficulty in pledging that amount."

"However, the deal fell through because the government insisted on a cash payment of $1,000 down."

ANOTHER opening this week. Flo Mankin, a Sierra Madre resident, opens her attractive new beauty salon at 48 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Associated with her will be Jack Shaw, widely known and experienced hair stylist, also a San Gabriel Valley resident.

The new shop will be known as the FASHIONETTE with the reception room in aqua and the interior done in shades of yellow and orange—and be sure to see those crazy space helmets masquerading as dryers.

'Progressive Conservatism' Will Win for Nixon, Lodge

"The captains and the kings depart;
Still stands thine ancient sacrifice."
—Kipling's "Recessional."

The conventions' hoopla, plus their serious moments by the serious-minded delegates and the serious-minded folk back home, engrossed in hope for peace and world freedom, is ended. Now comes what projects itself as one of the toughest, if not the toughest, Presidential battles in American political history.

Messrs. Nixon's and Kennedy's shadows are lifted from the Chicago International Amphitheater and the Los Angeles Sports Arena, but before them looms this unique and hard-hitting Campaign of Youth as contrasted to former Campaigns of the Aged, the Teddy Roosevelt campaigns excluded. A new era has arrived in our national politics.

"PROGRESSIVE Conservatism" is the slogan adopted by Richard M. Nixon in his bid for the Presidency. His mood and this appraisal was clearly manifest in his adroit political maneuvers and actions at the Chicago convention, and in his embracing of the Nixon-Rockefeller 14 points, with their stress on civil rights.

"I completely reject the idea that we simply dig ourselves in in cement and resist all changes because of our fear of what change would be," says the Republican candidate.

"The rule of life is change. There's going to be change. Our people are a progressive people. They want to move forward."

"So conservatism at its best must be progressive. It must look at these great social and economic problems of which we are confronted, oppose the phony schemes and the panaceas, but come up with constructive alternatives which will meet those problems and solve those problems and produce for the future while still preserving the best from the past."

"This is the middle of the road; it is generalities—but it is where I stand."

VICE PRESIDENT Nixon has demonstrated within the past year the ability to change his economic concepts to the needs of the times.

A year ago he could have been placed in the right-of-center school of inflexible economics. This is a school of thought which places much emphasis on the stability of the status-quo.

But it soon became apparent to the vice president, who is chairman of the President's Cabinet Committee on Price Stability for Economic Growth, that something was lacking in his economic policies, that growth is the essential nature of a free people and that he who holds without changing of the status-quo runs the risk of limiting the nation's horizons. Consequently, Mr. Nixon increased his home work on economics.

THIS FLEXIBILITY of attitude, this departure from status-quoism, is reflected in the following:

- 1—A willingness to get at the facts of a situation and then determine policies according to the facts.
- 2—An awareness of the importance timing plays in economic policies.
- 3—A willingness (and this is a key to Nixon economic thinking) to utilize tax policy in a flexible way to counteract the effects of either inflation or recession.
- 4—An emphasis on a national policy of maximum employment.
- 5—An objective to make the Federal budget show a balance always in boom times, and to average a balance over a period of say, five years, in time of mixture boom and recession.
- 6—An awareness of the importance of finding ways to help undeveloped nations grow; and a special awareness of the importance of international trade (which means an awareness that selective reduction of tariffs may be required).

THESE ARE tests which Mr. Nixon in his political and economic growth has met.

Are they right and proper for the best interest of our country and for the freedom-hungry people of the strife-torn world?

We believe that they are.

The American voters will have three choice before them come November—a Republican, a Democrat and Nikita S. Khrushchev—all three will be running in the 1960 Presidential sweepstakes.

THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS picks the Republicans—Messrs. Nixon and Lodge. It can prove a winner for the United States and for World Freedom.

What Does Our C. of C. Do?

Sometimes citizens ask "What does the Chamber of Commerce do to benefit our city—and me?" And they are apt to lift a doubting eyebrow.

Well, neighbor, the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce does plenty for this city, as is evidenced by the following accomplishments the past few months, these achieved under the efficient and active leadership of its president, John H. Curtis:

- 1—Sponsored a Sierra Madre City Hostess.
- 2—Sponsored and brought to Sierra Madre a "Little Repertoire Theater" group.
- 3—Sponsored and actively put over Clean-Up and Paint-Up Campaign.
- 4—Kept racketeers and promoters from entering Sierra Madre.
- 5—Attracted several Los Angeles builders to Sierra Madre who are now considering building new homes in Sierra Madre.
- 6—Sponsored "Wistaria Dollar Days."
- 7—Sponsored "Better Street Lighting."
- 8—Placed news stories in newspapers in Sierra Madre and Pasadena.
- 9—In process of publishing a new city map.
- 10—Published and distributed a new brochure for Sierra Madre.
- 11—Increased our City Directory Library for Southern California.
- 12—Through letters and sales talks the Chamber of Commerce attracted four new families to move here from the East.

Lee Shippey Says . . . What Do You Think?

When I visited several countries in Europe several years ago, I was struck by the apparent fact that the seemed free from the great American pest, the litterbug. In Switzerland, for example, the mountain scenery reminded us of California, except for one important difference. There were no empty beer cans, broken bottles, used lunch cartons, empty cigarette cartons and all the other trash that trashy persons leave behind them on the highways.

I spoke to a Swiss gentleman about this and his eyebrows rose in surprise. "Naturally," he said. "We are too proud of our country to scatter litter which would show a lack of self-respect for our country. Besides, if we didn't show such respect we would be heavily fined."

We Americans are mighty proud of our country. But a lot of us don't show as much respect for it as the Europeans do for their countries.

SPEAKING of persons who should be fined one of the first reports of our latest terrible forest fire said the fire fighters were being seriously hampered and delayed because the cars of curiosity-seekers were blocking some of the roads.

Persons who helped bring about that situation should feel somewhat responsible for the rapid spread of the fire and subsequent loss of homes and lives. For years I have been urging that a police cordon should cut off every great disaster and tickets calling for stiff fines should be handed out to every motorist entering the area who could not prove he had good reason for being there.

The knowledge that everyone driving into such an area would get a ticket and would have to report in court to plead his case would stop many of those who had no business there. Why in heck won't some of the authorities take up the suggestion?

Many Hardships Confront Nixon

By Robert G. Spivack

WASHINGTON

THE NIXON CAMPAIGN—Richard M. Nixon starts his campaign for the Presidency with about as many handicaps as any nominee of a major party in the last 40 years. Some of the problems are of his own creation. Others, such as the collapse of the summit talks and their effects on Republican prospects, are the results of circumstances over which Nixon personally had no control.

The list is long, but to understand how Nixon will try to cope with his problems it is necessary to recall what a few of his difficulties are.

Nixon began his national political career under the cloud of his "private fund," the $18,000-plus kitty contributed by a group of California oilmen, and others, to help meet his expenses while in Washington. The first time the public outside his home state, came to know Nixon was in his famous "Checkers speech."

As debater's oratory, it was brilliant. Yet many will remember that in it Nixon never conceded that there was anything wrong in what he was doing; that he said merely that everybody else did it. And if it were not a private fund, he warned, might have been public monies used for personal purposes. So the taxpayers were lucky to get off so easily.

LATER in his career, notably 1954, Nixon seemed to welcome the assignment to do the "dirty work" for the national committee. It was this campaign in which he earned the title of "White Collar McCarthy." The Nixon line, a throwback to his campaign against Helen Gahagan Douglas, was essentially that Democrats are sympathetic to Communism. By 1956 he was moving toward the "high road," except for a slip and then. Ten years later we began to read of the "New Nixon," with essays in the British press and elsewhere about how he had grown in stature and had acquired new interest in the more important elements of national culture.

Now, in 1960, Nixon aligns himself with the "left Republican" view of Nelson Rockefeller on certain key issues, such as civil rights and in support of the "objectives" of the Negro-sit-ins.

Certainly if an over-zealous youth grows into a mature man, the nation is the gainer. But, as Walter Lippmann notes, there is still a great deal to know about how Nixon would put into effect the lofty goals of the Rockefeller-Nixon memorandum.

This year it would seem to me the voters will take a long, hard and critical look at both candidates for the Presidency before they accept either at his own estimate of himself or at the estimate of his press agents.

THE POOR BOY vs. The Rich Boy—Even before the Republican keynote speech the general lines of the Nixon campaign were becoming apparent. As Rep. Judd noted, with a touch of sarcasm, this is a nation of great opportunities. "The son of a rich man, like Jack Kennedy, can run for President. And the son of a poor man, like Dick Nixon, is also afforded the opportunity to enter the White House."

Well, there are more poor people than are rich people. It took the Republicans a long time to make this discovery but maybe they finally have in this campaign. Large buttons were circulated around Chicago's International Amphitheater with a photo of The White House and across it was a sign "Not for sale."

But the high point of the tipoff as to the kind of campaign he would run, came in Nixon's visit to Rockefeller.

friends thought this was too abrupt an act for the Vice President of the United States. He should have insisted that Rockefeller come to visit him, they argued.

To all this Nixon said nonsense. He wanted to point up that the men of wealth are, perhaps, a bit arrogant and his shafts were directed as much against Kennedy as they were against Rockefeller. On the other hand, he said, "I do not stand on protocol."

In short in the interest of becoming President of the U.S. Nixon was willing to go anywhere, even to the camp of the enemy.

The key word in the Nixon campaign of 1960 will be "humility." If it works the vice president will have demonstrated again that he functions best in the role of the man with his back to the wall.

Rah for Lucifer!

Down in Florida, tow or three parents are suing to prevent schools from having any Christmas songs sung or any mention made whatsoever of God, under the flimsy excuse that there ought to be a separation of church and school. Imagine how happy these poor souls are making ole Lucifer—he doesn't like the mention of the name 'God,' either.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

Someone has just sent to me a clipping from Lee Shippey's column in which he said some nice things about me. I merely want you and Lee to know that such things said achieve a priceless value when they came from the dear heart and restless mind of Lee Shippey. God bless and keep him.

Sincerely,
—Chet Huntley

Dear Editor:

Your most helpful support, through the columns of the Sierra Madre News, for such Kiwanis Club projects as the Community Breakfast and the Garden Contest will not soon be forgotten by the members of this club.

In addition to your helping hand publicity-wise, the out-of-pocket contribution of several thousand entry tags for the Garden Contest and more than 1,000 sheets of paper for the PTA home bulletins of the contest have helped more than even you may realize.

Community spirit is an important thing in the life of a city such as Sierra Madre. You have presented a beautiful example of that spirit. Please accept this expression of our appreciation.

Lawrence C. Bevington,
President.

Dear Editor:

Just how many American Flags, for instance, were displayed on Ramona Ave. on July Fourth?

There was ONE that I know. It was at the porch entrance of the Ramona Unit, 666 Ramona Ave., of the British Home headquarters, 647 Manzanita Ave., established some 25 years ago by the Daughters of the British Empire in California for retired Britishers. The residents of the home are loyal American-minded, showing loyalty and respect for their adopted country. Mostly they are naturalized American citizens.

I became an American citizen by marriage, in 1906. And became an ardent voter, property owner and wage earner, but, now retired, I bought into the Ramona Unit of the British Home.

It is the self-imposed duty of Mr. Hayden Randall of the home, and myself, to care and display the flag of the United States, but always with the British Union Jack beside it, so at the home entrance the Stars and Stripes, on the right, was waving proudly in the breeze while on the left, a little smaller, was the British flag, showing the international spirit in the same breeze.

PRECEDING the July Fourth dinner, as accustomed, I played national tunes from "Yankee Doodle" to the "Star Spangled Banner."

Someone called for "America" and it was noticeable how spines straightened with the first struck notes of the well-known tune. With the second verse there was a hesitancy with someone calling out "Why not 'God Save the Queen'?" and the same tune with different words rang out lustily.

Everyone knew the second verse but with the third beginning there was complete silence. A discussion arose until Mr. Ernest Butterwick rose and recited the words of the third verse so little known and seldom sung.

Here it is, the third verse to "God Save Our Queen":

Our Lord and God arise,
Scatter our enemies,
And make them fall.
Confound their politics,
Frustrate their knavish tricks.
On Thee our hopes we fix,
God save us all.

The tune of "God Save Our Queen" and the tune of "America" are one and the same. Little is known of its origin except that it was found as a folk tune in many European countries but the record shows it to have been written and sung at a dinner party in London in 1740 to celebrate a British naval victory.

IN AMERICA, a young divinity student loaned a German song book by a musician, Lowell Mason. He found in it a tune to which he wrote the words of "My Country 'Tis of Thee." Later it was presented by a choir of children trained by Mason in the Park Street Church, Boston. This was on July 4, 1832, the first time the American National Hymn was publicly sung. Six years later it was published in a song book.

As an American citizen, and a staunch Republican, I think that another arrangement of words to the well-known tune would make it a good convention song. Here is my new version of that third verse:

Your Congressman Reports . . .

Voters Should Elect Republican House

By Edgar W. Hiestand
Representative, 21st District, Calif.

America stands to lose one of its most important guards against faulty legislation if the present majority party retains its control of Congress after the November elections.

I am referring to the vast and vital role of committees, whose members serve as the architects of our nation's laws. Thoughtful action by committee members often "holds the line" on bills being pressured into law. We are concerned over possible shifts of committee chairmanships if voters keep the Democratic Party in power.

One of these changes could occur in the powerful House Committee on Education and Labor of which I am a member.

THE PRESENT chairman of this committee is Rep. Graham Barden, a Southern conservative who is retiring from Congress this term. If the majority party wins, a New Yorker is in line to succeed Chairman Barden. He is Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, whom, you will remember, was recently indicted in an income tax fraud.

In the closing days of the session, Rep. Powell attempted to seize control after Chairman Barden had adjourned the committee. In a rump session, he sat in the chair and conducted a meeting. The speaker of the House later ruled this meeting illegal.

Quickly, then, you can see the important consequences hanging on the election outcome. Do we want a man who illegally takes command of a governmental body to serve as that body's chairman next year? Especially in these times when the fields of education and labor are so important?

SOME OF US show equal concern for the Banking and Currency Committee of which I also am a member. Next in line, after Chairman Brent Spence, is Paul Brown of Georgia. Rep. Brown is retiring this year, however, leaving in line Texas' Rep. Wright Patman, an advocate of "funny money" and high spending.

The chairman of a committee serves as an important guide to measures which reach the floor for general debate and vote. The assumption of these positions by free-spenders could seriously jeopardize the bonds of restraint which we are now trying to hold firm.

In this area, I am sure you all will stand up and be counted—and counted on for support.

20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Aug. 2, 1940—Sunday afternoon and evening will be devoted to music and art at the Wistaria Vine Gardens, with Ella Shepard Bush, Sierra Madre's distinguished miniaturist, being honored at tea, and the sunset supper salon presenting a musical program and a discussion on international relations. Mrs. Milton Steinberger will preside as special hostess. The affair will take place in the Blue Garden, a lovely portion of the gardens which Mrs. W. J. Lawless dedicated to Miss Bush last year. 'Duke's' Home Again

"Duke," the fugitive green and yellow parrot, is back in his cage at the Bridge family home, 484 Maniposa, and all is well with the "Duke" who again, in great glee, squawks his favorite slogan, "Oh, Mom" in dulcet tones.

"Duke," after escaping from an unlocked cage, flew to a tree near the Sierra Madre Medical Center where he amused patients, doctors, nurses and attendants with his quite extensive vocabulary.

Then he made for Lower Hastings where high in a eucalyptus tree he proceeded to direct his remarks at the George Baughman family, 38 Landfair Rd.

About this time he began to be thirsty and hungry so Tom Baughman was able to entice him groundward—and with water and food as the bait—"Duke" was once again captive. But not before he gently nipped the nose of the inquisitive Baughman dachshund—"Duke" still retained a shred of his fast-ebbing independence.

S. M. Scouts To Take Part In Fair Show

The Rattlesnake and Flaming Arrow patrols of Troop 376, Sierra Madre, will be among the Boy Scouts participating in daily Camporals at Los Angeles County Fair, Pomona, according to Lee Harbottle of the San Gabriel Valley Boy Scout Council and member of the Camporal Advisory Committee.

They will pitch their tents on the hill behind the floral building, guided by the advice of "sidewalk superintendents." Last year's hundreds of participating Boy Scouts didn't seem to mind the spectators—some 60,000 people visited the fair daily and many passed by the Scout camp and watched the boys cook, set up camp and give demonstrations in camp skills.

The Camporals, which last from 5 in the afternoon 'til 5 p.m. the next day, feature Jamboree type of camping. They are judged on appearance, display of equipment, demonstrations and team work.

The group also is planning its one big party of the year, a Mexican Jamaica, on Sept. 24 at the home of Mrs. William W. Farrar.

Building Permits Again Show Drop

For the second successive month Sierra Madre building permits continue to lag behind the corresponding month of the year previous. July permits totaled $91,300, compared to $116,034 for July, 1959.

Included in this year's July permits were three single dwelling units for a total of $64,950. Licenses issued during the month totaled $647.50.

New 'Green Center'

Continued from page 1 between 2½ and kindergarten age, and also for the special education and guidance of parents of such preschool children.

It is estimated that almost 1,000 parents have participated in the program during the past 13 years. Present facilities, valued at more than $30,000, were built entirely by fathers of children who have attended the school.

PRESENT FACILITIES accommodate 120 children during the school year and about 75 through the summer months. Supervision of the children is maintained through a well-staffed group of teachers highly trained in child development and guidance. Also a registered nurse daily inspects each child on arrival.

In addition to attending educational meetings co-sponsored by the Community Nursery School and Pasadena City College Extended Day Program, the organization actually conducts the business of the school, formulates its policies and maintains and improves the buildings and grounds.

The school is strictly a community-sponsored program, non-profit and non-discriminatory. Services are available even if parents cannot afford financial contribution.

both boys to the hospital where they were discharged after having their injuries dressed.

Police, puzzled because both bicycles struck the Sloop car, believe that the boys, at the moment, were conversing and not paying attention to where they were going.

Lions Club Will Attend Dodger Tilt

Sierra Madre Lions Club members, under the aegis of the new president, Joe Delgatto, plan a Sierra Madre Day at the Dodger ball game in Los Angeles Coliseum on Aug. 25, it is announced.

First get-together of the season with the Lady Lions will be held soon at the El Encanto where Frank B. Barbour, fellow Lion, holds forth as host and manager.

A Lady Lions swim party is scheduled for September. The Sierra Madre Lions recently were guests of the Altadena club at the Altadena Country Club.

District Governor Jack Moring will induct new members when he visits the club here in October.

Ellerbrock Aids Opus on Schweitzer

Lee E. Ellerbrock of 501 E. Montecito, president of the Fellow For Schweitzer, recently returned from Chicago where he attended a seminar of the group, will translate into German a summary of its deliberations to be made by a philosophy professor at the State University of Colorado.

The group's version, in which the Schweitzer hopes and promises for world peace are emphasized, will be taken to Africa for the doctor's scrutiny. If it meets with his approval it will be placed before a meeting of scientists and philosophers in 1961 for their judgment and appraisal.

"We believe that Dr. Schweitzer's appeal for subjective, personal morals based on rational thought and individual choice of ethical activity will be at least one way available for mankind in this depersonalized and material age for eternal peace and renewed conviction that ethics are the highest truth and practicality," says Mr. Ellerbrock.

Honoree At Coffee Hour

Mrs. Don Kates, 1016 Crestview, was hostess at a recent coffee honoring a new neighbor, Mrs. Robert Prescott, who with her family, moved from Azusa to the Ranch.

Guests included Mrs. Sid Haupt, Mrs. Dayton Seller, Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Mrs. Frank McKibbin, Mrs. Ella Carpenter and Mrs. Leon Garrie.

Mrs. Barrett Member of State Group

Among four Foothill residents named to the Democratic State Central Committee by Mrs. Rudd Brown, the party's candidate for Congress from the 21st Congressional District, and by Dr. Dore Sharp of Hastings Ranch, candidate for the State Assembly from the 48th District, is Mrs. Howell (Leonore) Barrett who until her husband's appointment to the Municipal Court Bench, resided at 425 Canon Dr., Sierra Madre. The Barretts now live in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Barrett, who was administrative assistant to Dan Kimball on the Los Angeles Citizens Committee for the Democratic National Convention, the principal fund-raising organization for the convention, is co-finance chairman of Mrs. Brown's campaign committee. Two years ago she was Southern California coordinator of Judge Stanley Mosk's successful campaign for state attorney general.

Mrs. John (Gertrude) Barker of Monrovia is another of the appointees to the Democratic State Central Committee.

Fergusons Will Travel if World Affairs Permit

Mrs. Ida Ferguson, secretary-treasurer of the Acme Juicer Mfg. Co., 34 N. Baldwin, recently sold to Alfred Leo of Harrisburg, Pa., will remain with the new company for a couple of months after which she and her husband, Harry A. Ferguson, who was vice president of the company, plan extensive travel, notably in Europe, world conditions permitting. The Fergusons will continue to reside at 3175 Landfair, Hastings Ranch.

Robert D. Dodge, who was president of the company, and Mrs. Dodge, of 11 Orange Grove Ave., also plan extensive travels. They will continue to maintain their home in Sierra Madre.
